For this concert, artists from Bali, Indonesia, Japan and Berlin meet for the first time to create a unique performance. For five days they will experiment how tradition and improvisation are being lived in their different cultures and present their experiences in this concert. Between meditation and expression, rhythm, sound and quietness the musicians and performers join in an artistic dialogue with their respective cultures.

Entrance fee 15 € reduced 10 €

The concert is an event by the Asia-Pacific Forum Berlin within the framework of the Asia-Pacific Week Berlin 2018.
